Regence 2025 Annual Overview

A message from Mark Ruszczyk

As President of Regence BlueShield of Idaho, I want to thank each of you—our valued stakeholders and partners—for your commitment and support throughout 2025. The year presented significant challenges across the health care sector, testing our industry’s resilience and adaptability. Yet, together, we navigated these complexities with resolve and purpose.

I am proud to share that Regence emerged stronger, marked by an upgrade in our financial strength rating. This achievement underscores our disciplined stewardship and positions us to continue advancing our mission. Our focus remains steadfast: delivering greater value for our members by working nonstop to improve access to high-quality, affordable care. We have invested in innovative solutions and enhanced services to ensure that our members receive the best possible care, when and where they need it most.

Our commitment extends beyond health insurance; as an Idaho-based, taxpaying, not-for-profit organization, we actively partner with community groups to address local needs and support wellness initiatives. These collaborative efforts reflect our enduring promise to serve Idaho’s families and communities.

Looking ahead, I am optimistic about our shared future. Thank you for your partnership and trust in Regence.
